25X1 10. [redacted] LEGISLATION Spoke with Elliot Maxwell, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to follow up a 25X1 call he had made earlier to [redacted] regarding a paper he had heard about on aspects of sources and methods. Mr. Maxwell said he was interested in obtaining a copy of this paper which as he understood from Roger LeMaster, Legislative Aide to Senator Walter Huddleston (D., Ky.) was available at the Agency. He indicated it would be of use to him in considering sources and methods legislation. I informed Mr. Maxwell that our Office of General Counsel was looking into the matter of releasing the paper to the Select Committee.

25X1 11. [redacted] LEGISLATION Discussed at some length with Jim MacRae, OMB, our proposed letter to Chairman Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, on S. 305, a bill to expand corporate reporting requirements and to outlaw foreign bribery. Mr. MacRae suggested we make the letter itself unclassified for purposes of legislative history and further suggested we broaden our proposed amendment. I explained to Mr. MacRae the background of our work on this bill and told him I would get back to him Monday.

Mr. MacRae had indicated that a meeting would be held on Monday to discuss the Agency's concerns with S. 305 in conjunction with the Administration's position on the bill. After checking with the National Security Council, however, he said such a meeting would not be necessary at this time.
